

ISO 22000
CERTIFICATION IN BOTSWANA
(food and safety management system)

What is ISO 22000 Certification in Botswana?

- ISO 22000 certification in Botswana is the International Requirement that specifies requirements for a food security administration system (FSMS).
- ISO 22000 Food Security Management System is a process control system created to determine and also stop physical, microbial as well as chemical hazards in food manufacturing and also entire food chain. ISO 22000 utilizes the concepts of the HACCP system for Food Safety and security.

THANK YOU

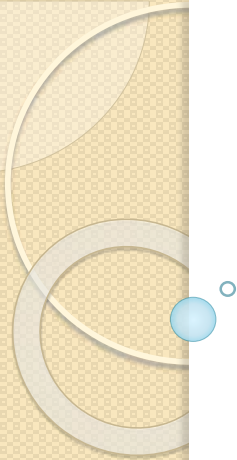

Why do need ISO 22000 Certification in Botswana?

The International Organization for Standardization (ISO) created the Food Security Administration System Certification: ISO 22000. ISO as well as its participant nations utilized the High-quality Monitoring System method and also customized it to apply to Food Safety and security, integrating the commonly used and shown HACCP concepts and also Good Production Concepts (dealt with by Requirement Programs in ISO 22000).

The standard has needs for Food Security Monitoring Solution procedures and procedures, as well as requires that the company implement required programs and HACCP.

ISO 22000 Certification procedure in Botswana.

-
1. Gap analysis.
 2. Awareness training.
 3. Record support.
 4. Inner audit and also MRM.
 5. Final audit.

What does ISO 22000 Certification need?

- Effective Prerequisite Programs in position to make certain a tidy hygienic setting
- A Danger Analysis and Important Control Strategy was created to identify, prevent and also get rid of food security risks,
- Developed recorded food security administration system refines to take care of food security throughout your organization-- from monitoring and company planning facets to daily communication as well as operations influencing food safety.
- Have a total Food Safety Plan for your organization, established by top management.
- Establishing objectives that will certainly drive your firm's efforts to abide by this plan.
- Preparation and designing a management system as well as recording the system.

Implementation of ISO 22000 Certification in Botswana?

- Enhanced monitoring and also interaction.
- Assurances on quality, integrity safety, and security.
- Decrease prices from withdrawals or remembers.
- Better credibility and brand loyalty.
- Extra self-confidence in disclosures.
- Much better quality and more secure jobs in the food sector.
- Much more reliable food safety threat control.
- Legitimate basis for taking decisions.
- Better planning, less post-process confirmation.

Why choose factocert get ISO 22000 certification in Botswana?

Also before starting the application of the particular ISO 22000 need, the company ought to certainly prepare and likewise intend the process by planning for the resource, time, personnel, framework, as well as a whole lot added.

The team in charge of ISO 22000 certification together with credentials be multi-disciplinary along with lug functional understanding from different industrial domains. With all the necessary in addition to interesting consider place, ISO 22000 certification is no question a success element for a company.

Even more info contact www.factocert.com.